THE SENTINEL. No XXIII.

BEING some Time ago at the Society for the Promotion of Arts, Agriculture, and Oeconomy, in the Colony of New-York, in North-America, it gave me the most sensible Pleasure, to see so many Persons of various Ranks and Degrees, all conspiring to promote the public Interest, and warmly animated with the generous Spirit of Patriotism. I could not help congratulating my Country, that while some infamous Wretches are exerting their pestilent Talents in calumniating the Colony, so great a Number of genuine Sons were studious of her Weal and Prosperity. What, said I to myself, tho' some Miscreants conceive it their Interest to misrepresent America, and aspire to Promotion by Falsehood and Obliquy, Virtue has not entirely deserted the World, nor is the Flame of Patriotism extinguished in every Breast. No, I behold it's glorious Effects, not only in Gentlemen of Fortune and Distinction, but in common Tradesmen and Mechanicks. While such a Spirit exists, What salutary Consequences may we not expect from so disinterested a Plan? One can scarcely travel in any Part of the Country, but is charmed to see the benign Influences of this wise and generous Institution. Can they injure us with new Impositions? We can more severely distress them by retrenching our Luxury——And what have we from them that comes not under that Denomination? If we cannot immediately make all our Woollens, we can at least wear British Cloth of Twenty Shillings, instead of Forty Shillings, a Yard; and surely a Man who has a Spark of public Virtue, will prefer that which makes most for the Interest of his native Country. And as to Linens, the Majority of our Men intend next Summer to be entirely dress'd in them; and, I speak it with singular Pleasure, that many of the Fair Sex are determined to have them printed and substituted in the Room of Chints and Callicoes. So that instead of being disheartened at any late Measures, they will undoubtedly terminate in our real Advantage; and however they may tend to render a Minister odious at home, they will only promote Industry and Frugality in the Plantations. But while I was engaged in this agreeable Contemplation, my Pleasure was greatly abated by the Complaint contained in the following Letter, which I shall lay before the Reader, almost in the very Words of the Author.

Mr. SENTINEL,

AS the Character you have assumed ought to engage you to the greatest Vigilance against every Thing that may be introduced, either into our Laws, Politicks, or Commerce, injurious to the Public; I cannot, from the Love I bear my Country, help furnishing you with a proper Subject of Animadversion. It is that pernicious Practice which our Merchants and Brewers have lately gone into, of importing Malt from Europe, into a Country that abounds with, and whose only Staple is, Grain, to the unspeakable Hurt and Detriment of our industrious Farmers. There have already this Year been imported about 7000 Bushels, and a Quantity near equal to that is yet expected; which is almost as much as all our Breweries consume. Should this Practice be continued, How greatly must it discourage him from raising good Barley? If the Gentlemen of this City, who have formed themselves into a Society for the Encouragement of the Produce of their own Country, have judged it necessary, for that glorious Purpose, to Resolve upon the Disuse of English Beer, because we can make as good ourselves; How much more necessary is it to discourage the Importation of Malt, which must so immediately and sensibly affect the Farmer; and more remotely the Merchant who trades with him? Would it not therefore be prudent for the Society to come to a Resolution, not to use any Beer, or other Malt Liquor, but what is made of the Produce of their own Country; nor to buy any of those Liquors, whether made of foreign or our own Malt, from Brewers or Distillers, who import or purchase any other? If some of our Brewers pretend, that they cannot make such good Beer of our own as of English Malt; I can prove it a gross Mistake by some late Essays on Long-Island, where as good Beer has been made of our own Grain, as any that was ever imported. But were the Case otherwise, yet surely Americans, who have the Love of their Country at Heart, should prefer what is made of the Produce of their own Country, even should it prove somewhat inferior. Let those Brewers who have not the Art of giving their Beer the Taste and Flavour of the English, (while any amongst us have so peculiar a Relish for the Taste of Soot) send to England for Brewers and Malsters, and I am confident they will have no Reason to depreciate the Quality of our Grain. I therefore think it incumbent on you, Mr. SENTINEL, on this Occasion, to sound an Alarm; and call upon your Countrymen to exert themselves in discouraging a Practice so injurious to themselves, and so detrimental to the laborious Farmer. Pray, Sir, point out all the Mischiefs that may arise from this pernicious Practice, and propose some Mark of public Contempt to be put upon those who shall hereafter be found instrumental in continuing so shameful a Commerce.

Part of another SENTINEL.

ALL those wretched Nations, who live under absolute Governments, and are stripped of the natural Rights of Mankind by their unrelenting Oppressors, are most miserably touched. Tyranny, my Brethren, is a kind of political Damnation; and were all the Enemies of human Happiness to consult together for a whole Century, they could not invent a more effectual Method to destroy it, than by Enslaving a free People. Turn your Eyes to those Parts of the Globe where LIBERTY is no more; and what do you behold, but Nakedness, Beggary, and Want! The Lords of the Creation used like the Bestial Herd; and a single TYRANT Rioting in the Spoils of Thousands!

A free People may be said to be touched whenever any of those Laws by which their civil Rights are secured to them, are in any Degree infringed or violated. The Law, my Brethren, is the Foundation of our LIBERTIES. Take away this, and the Superstructure tumbles to the Ground. How acutely therefore do they touch the Lord's anointed, that is, the People, who would raise this glorious Foundation; and in its room, erect the enormous Babel of Despotic Pleasure?

Whenever any Man declares that Englishmen have no other Title to their Liberty than the Will of the Prince, he may be said most severely to touch the People, and deserves to be severely Reproved for his Impudence. Blessed be GOD; we do not hold our LIBERTIES by the precarious Tenure of any Man's Will. They are defended by the impregnable Bulwark of Law, and guarantied by the most awful Sanctions. And whoever asserts the contrary, is a LIAR, and the Truth is not in him.

As without Law, we can have no Security either for our Persons or Property; it follows, that whoever speaks contemptuously of the Courts of Justice, and vilifies the Dispensers and Professors of the Law, in order to render the Law itself contemptible, is chargeable with the Crime of touching the Lord's anointed.

Obnoxious to the same Charge is every Man, who attempts to abolish the antient and established Modes of deciding Property; and to introduce in their room a Method odious, unconstitutional and unfriendly, to Liberty.

Every Magistrate may be said to touch the Lord's anointed, who instead of consulting the public Good, and making the Law the sole Rule of his Conduct, should endeavour to forge Chains for his Fellow Subjects, and represent them as inclined to Faction, Disloyalty, and Independence, when he knows in his Conscience the Representation is altogether false and defamatory. This surely is one of the worst Touchings that has yet been touched upon, and for every such Calumny, every such Calumniator deserves to be Reproved with universal ABHORRENCE.

The Scriptures, my Brethren, abominate the impious Doctrine of subjecting MILLIONS to the ARBITRARY WILL of ONE. Government indeed is a Divine Appointment; but unlimited Power is no Government. It is Tyranny: It is Misrule: It is the most tremendous and complicated Evil under the Sun.

From what has been said, we may further infer, that however the Tools of Power may affect to disparage the People, and stigmatize them with the opprobious Names of MOB and RABBLE, they are the Darlings of Providence; and in the Eyes of their original Author and continual Preserver, of great Estimation. They are the Lord's anointed; and he will first or last REBUKE their OPPRESSORS.

To conclude, my Brethren, let us ever be Jealous of lawless Encroachments; and still remembering that we are the Lord's anointed, let us act worthy of this high Dignity, this exalted Character: Let us Prize our Liberty civil and sacred, as a Jewel of inestimable Value. Let us endeavour to preserve it safe and inviolate. Let us oppose arbitrary Rule in every Shape, by every lawful Method in our Power. Never let us sit supine and indolent while our precious Privileges are abridged either by secret Machination, or open Violence. But let us on every such alarming Occasion, rouse ourselves and act like Men. Like Men who know the unspeakable Advantages of Freedom by happy Experience; and can image to ourselves the matchless Horrors of Tyranny by a Survey of those dismal Regions, where it reigns, rages and destroys. Let no illegal Attempt against us appear inconsiderable, or unworthy our Notice. A smaller will ever pave the Way for a greater: The latter for a greater still. Let us therefore check the rising Mischief; and crush the Cockatrice in the Egg. In a Word, let us strive to transmit to Posterity, that ineffable Blessing which our Ancestors have handed down to us: And after having stood like unconquerable Champions in the Cause of Liberty to our dying Hour; may we at last resign our Spirits with the delightful Prospect of leaving our Children free and happy; while we ourselves, are translated to those peaceful Mansions, from whence all Oppression and Tyranny, will be, for ever and ever excluded. AMEN.

LONDON, June 6.

ON Tuesday last, and not before, the fine Clock, bespoke for his Majesty of Mr. Pinchbeck, and executed by Mr. Norton, of St. John-Street, was carried by Messrs. Pinchbeck and Norton to the Queen's House, where it met with his Majesty's Approbation, who ordered the ingenious Maker to be generously rewarded. This Clock has four Faces, the first and principal of which shews true and apparent Time, with the Rising and Setting of the Sun every Day in the Year, by a moving Horizon, which consequently shews the lengthening and shortening of the Days; it likewise shews the Time of the Day in several Parts of the Earth. The second Front has a solar System, which shews the Motion of the Planets in their Orbits, according to Copernicus. The third shews the Age and different Phases of the Moon, with the Time of the Tides at 32 different Seaports. The fourth and last, by a curious retrograde Motion in a Spiral, shews every Day of the Month and Year, and likewise the Months and Days of the Week, with Emblems, &c. The Calculations and Numbers for the Wheels for the solar System were given by that great Astronomer Dr. Bevis; and the Designs for all the Dial Plates, with the Numbers and Calculation, and Mode of performing, the Moon and Tides, by the ingenious Mr. Ferguson.

The East-India Company have received Advice, by their Ship the Devonshire, which arrived Yesterday from Bengal, that a compleat Victory has been gained by Major Munroe over Cossim Ali-Cawn, whose Army consisted of 50,000 Men, of which 6000 were slain on the Field of Battle, the Rest fled with the greatest Precipitation, leaving their whole Camp standing, which fell into the Hands of the English, together with a vast Treasure, and 150 Pieces of Cannon. The Loss on our Side was very inconsiderable.

Extract of a Letter from Ivelchester, May 9.

"Yesterday Mary Norwood, for poisoning her Husband, Joseph Norwood, of Axbridge, in this County, was burnt here, pursuant to her Sentence, in the Presence of about 8000 Spectators. She was brought out of the Prison about three o'Clock in the Afternoon, bare-foot: She was covered with a tarred Cloth, made like a Shift, a tarred Bonnet on her Head, and her Legs, Feet and Arms, had Tar on them: The Heat of the Weather melting the Tar on the Bonnet, it ran over her Face, so that she made a shocking Appearance: She was put on a Hurdle, and drawn on a Sledge to the Place of Execution, which was very near the Gallows. After spending some Time in Prayer, and singing a Hymn, the Executioner placed her on a Tar-barrel, about 3 Feet high; a Rope (which ran in a Pulley through the Stake) was fixed about her Neck, she herself placing it properly with her Hands; this Rope being drawn extreme tight with the Pulley, the Tar-barrel was then pushed away, and three Irons were fastened round her Body (to confine it to the Stake, that it might not drop when the Rope should be burnt) as soon as this was done, the Fire was immediately kindled, but in all Probability she was quite dead before it reached her, as the Executioner pulled her Body several Times whilst the Irons were fixing, which was about five Minutes. There being a great Quantity of Tar, and the Wood in the Pile being quite dry, the Fire burnt with amazing Fury; notwithstanding which, great Part of her could be discovered for near Half an Hour. Nothing could be more shocking than to behold, after her Bowels fell out, the Fire flaming between her Ribs, and issuing out at her Ears, Mouth, Eye-holes, &c. In short, it was so terrible a Sight, that great Numbers turned their Backs and screamed, not being able to look at it."

Compleat wet and dry Docks, Magazines, and a naval Arsenal, are this Summer to be built at Halifax, in Nova-Scotia.

BOSTON, August 12.

Yesterday Afternoon Capt. Haslam arrived here, in a Brig, in 45 Days from Bristol:—He informs, that the Day he sailed from thence he was told, by several Merchants of Credit, that the Right Honourable Mr. PITT was again re-instated in the Ministry, to the general Satisfaction of the Nation; but that, previous to his Acceptance of the Important Trust, he desired that his Majesty would renew his Alliance with the King of Prussia; that the Cyder Act should be repealed; and that the Parliament should be dissolved, and a new one called. The two former of which it was said were to be complied with, but the latter refused.

It is said several other Changes in the Ministry had also taken Place.

We hear from Providence, in the Colony of Rhode-Island, that the Freemen of that Town being lately called, to consider upon such Measures as should appear to them necessary relating to the Stamp Act, whereby the Liberties, the darling Boast of the North-American Subjects, which were once deemed indefeasible, must be greatly abridged, if not totally annihilated; they accordingly met for the aforesaid Purpose, and unanimously appointed a Committee to prepare Instructions suitable to be given their Representatives, for their Conduct in the next General Assembly, on this truly alarming Occasion; and that they are to be laid before the Town, for their Approbation, on the 13th of this Instant, at which Time those Sons of Liberty are to convene again, for the noblest of all Causes, their Country's Good.—A Proceeding this, that conveys the most lively Idea of Principles nobly Patriotic, and which will, it is to be wished, serve as an Example to other Towns to exert themselves at this Crisis, and to remind them, that they are entitled to all the Privileges of British Subjects, as long as they are denominated such, and to bear in Abhorrence the Name without the Substance.

Early on Monday Morning last departed this Town, after a short Stay, for his native Place, the Colony of Connecticut, the most reputable STAMP MAN, attended by his Brother Functioner of this Province, amidst the Exclamations of the People.—And we hear they were bewildered and lost their Way in going thro' Roxbury; but by the Help of Sambo, an innocent Negro Man, they were convey'd thro' Sheep Alley, into the great Road again, leading to Watertown.

NEW-YORK, August 19.

A Coffin of exquisite Workmanship was preparing for the Interment of a young Gentleman called the STAMP ACT, who it is said, expired soon after Lord B——e went to Scotland.

ANNAPOLIS, August 29.

Next Monday the Adjourn'd Provincial Court is to meet here.

Monday Morning last, a considerable Number of People, ASSERTORS of BRITISH-AMERICAN-PRIVILEGES, met here, to shew their Detestation of, and Abhorrence to, some late tremendous Attacks on LIBERTY, and their Dislike to a certain late-arriv'd - - - - - Officer; A NATIVE OF THIS PROVINCE! They curiously dress'd up the Figure of a Man, which they placed in a One-Horse Cart, Malefactor-like, with some Sheets of Paper in his Hands before his Face: In that Manner they Paraded thro' the Streets of the Town, till Noon, the Bell at the same Time Tolling a solemn Knell; when they proceeded to the Hill, and after giving it the MOSAIC LAW, at the Whipping-Post, placed it in the Pillory; from whence they took it and hung it to a Gibbet there Erected for that Purpose, and then set Fire to a Tar-Barrel underneath, and Burnt it, till it fell into the Barrel. By the many significant Nods of the Head, while in the Cart, it may be said to have gone off very Penitently.

☞ The Town is now so clear of the SMALL-POX, that there is but one Person, a Negro Wench, that has it, and she is so far recover'd of it, that it has been turn'd from Door, and To-morrow she is to be removed away, and on Saturday the House will be clean'd with Burnt Tar, and White-wash'd.
